Films, Talks, and Activities Featuring Pollination

Free

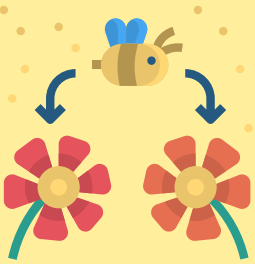

Saturday, June 1 at 11am Film Screening of "Wings of Life"

Narrated by Meryl Streep, this intimate and unprecedented look at butterflies, hummingbirds, bees, bats and flowers is a celebration of life, as a third of the world's food supply depends on these incredible—and increasingly threatened—creatures.

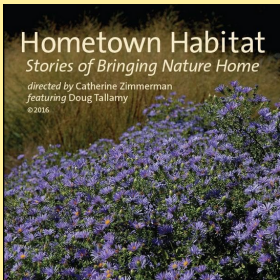

Tuesday, June 4 at 6pm Film Screening of "My Garden of a Thousand Bees"

A story of surprise and revelation. A wildlife filmmaker spends his time during the coronavirus pandemic lockdown filming the bees in his urban garden and discovers the many diverse species and personalities that exist in this insect family.

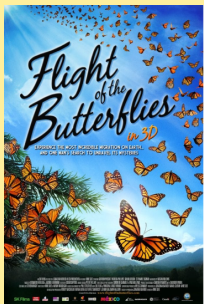

Friday, June 7 at 4pm Protecting Our Pollinators Workshop

Join Buncombe County's Environmental Educators for a workshop to learn about what we all can do to support healthy habitats for our pollinators. They will also teach us more about our native bees and butterflies

Saturday, June 8 at 11am Film Screening of "Hometown Habitat, Stories of Bringing Nature Home"

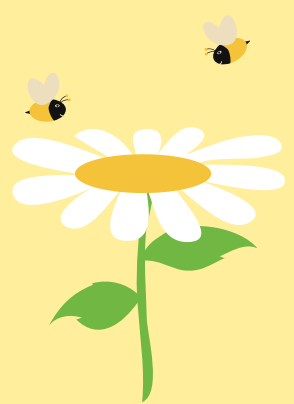

Environmental documentary featuring Dr. Doug Tallamy focused on why native plants are critical to the survival and vitality of local ecosystems with a goal to inspire people to plant native plants, providing a call to action to change our garden choices to include native plants.

Tuesday, June 11 at 6pm Film Screenings of "Flight of the Butterflies" and "Honey for the Maya"

Be captivated by the true and compelling story of an intrepid scientist's 40-year search to find the monarchs' secret hideaway with breathtaking cinematography from an award winning team. Plus an 8 minute documentary "Honey for the Maya" by Dr. Stephen Buchmann

This is part of a community-wide Pollination Celebration! that will be taking place throughout June 2024. For information about other events, go to: beecityasheville.org/pollination-celebration
